

HARD CONVERSATIONS WITH KIDS

TALKING TO CHILDREN & ADOLESCENTS ABOUT GRIEF & DEATH

Association for Children and Adolescent Counseling Ohio

This training will seek to equip helping professionals with skills to talk to children and adolescents about death and grief. Helping professionals often are fearful to broach this topic and seek resources that can be hard to access. This training will provide resources and suggestions that can be utilized in diverse clinical settings. Lastly, heavy emphasis will be placed on resource sharing and trainer is specifically prepared to share a wide range of books, videos, and popular culture references that can help ease anxiety.
